

Subject Pronouns:

ANSWER KEY

pronouns replacing the subject of a sentence

Directions: color in the correct subject pronoun for each sentence.

1. The ball sailed into the stands.

It

They

2. Babe Ruth is a hero.

We

He

3. Sofia is a superfan.

She

You

4. The field was beautiful.

It

She

5. Players practice often.

He

They

6. Marco and I played catch.

We

She

7. The manager and umpire argued.

I

They

Object Pronouns #1:

pronouns replacing the direct object.

ANSWER KEY

Directions: write in the correct object pronoun for each sentence.

it her him them us me

1. Players practice throwing and hitting.

Players practice them.

2. The umpire tossed the coach.

The umpire tossed him / her.

3. Sosa broke the bat. Sosa broke it.

4. The league honored Mrs. Robinson.

The league honored her.

5. The coach selected me and Norm.

The coach selected us.

6. Jose crushed the ball. Jose crushed it.

Object Pronouns #2:

pronouns replacing the indirect object.

ANSWER KEY

Directions: write in the correct object pronoun for each sentence.

it her him them us me

1. The player sent Addie tickets.

The player sent her tickets.

2. The league gave the team a trophy.

The league gave it a trophy.

3. The coach offered Rizzo and Bryant a contract.

The coach offered them a contract.

4. The team provided Norm and me a rain check.

The team provided us a rain check.

5. The league gave Willie Mays the Golden Glove.

The league gave him the Golden Glove.

6. Management gave the players rings.

Management gave them rings.

Object Pronouns #3:

ANSWER KEY

pronouns replacing the object of a preposition.

Directions: write in the correct object pronoun for each sentence.

it her him them us me

1. The umpire stood behind the catcher.

The umpire stood behind him / her.

2. The catcher jumped over the tarp and the wall.

The catcher jumped over them.

3. The pitcher looked at the batter and the runner.

The pitcher looked at them.

4. The ball headed toward my sister.

The ball headed toward her.

5. The ball sailed past the scoreboard.

The ball sailed past it.

6. The owner sat next to Norm and me.

The owner sat next to us.

Reflexive Pronouns

ANSWER KEY

Directions: write in the correct pronoun for each sentence.

themselves itself herself himself ourselves myself

1. Fans enjoy themselves.

2. We enjoyed ourselves at the game.

3. The player hurt himself / herself sliding home.

4. I bought myself a ticket.

5. Teams make themselves successful.

6. The pitcher believed in himself / herself.

7. Sofia, the superfan, calmed herself.

8. The bird confused itself by landing on the field.

Adjective or Pronoun?

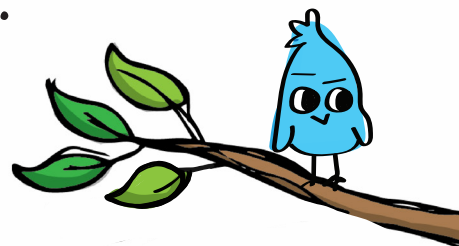

ANSWER KEY

Directions: read each sentence and decide if the underlined word is acting as an adjective or as a pronoun. Then, circle the adjectives in green and the pronouns in light blue.

These seats are fantastic.

Those are better seats.

That home run was unbelievable.

Wow, did you see that?

Which team is favored?

Which do you want to buy?

Both pitchers are terrific.

Both struck out eight players.

Many fans were ecstatic.

Many were disappointed.

Some coaches scream.

Others remain silent.

Adjective or Adverb?

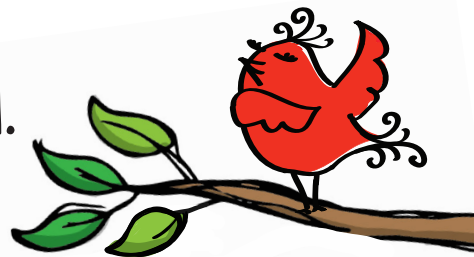

ANSWER KEY

Directions: read each sentence and decide if the underlined word is acting as an adjective or as an adverb. Then, circle the adjectives in green and the adverbs in red.

They practice daily.

The daily roster was posted.

We arrived at the game early.

He pitched the early innings.

The game ran very late.

The umpire made a late call.

The outfield shifted right.

The manager made the right call.

The first base coach looked left.

The batter had a brace on his left ankle.

Sofia, the superfan, watches nightly.

The team was featured on the nightly news.

Preposition or Adverb?

ANSWER KEY

Directions: read each sentence and decide if the underlined word is acting as a preposition or as an adverb. Then, circle the prepositions in purple and the adverbs in red.

The fans climbed up the stairs.

Tempers flared up quickly.

The bunt rolled along.

The ball sailed along the third baseline.

The outfielder fell down unexpectedly.

The umpire ran down the line.

The reliever came in.

The score was tied in the ninth inning.

The fans walked out disappointed.

The manager walked out the door.

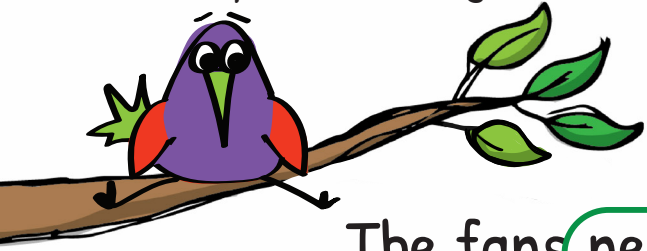

The runner slid under the tag.

Tickets are free for children five and under.

What Kind of Prepositional Phrase?

Directions: read each sentence and decide if the prepositional phrase is acting as an adjective or an adverb. Then, circle the phrases acting as adjectives in green, and the phrases acting as adverbs in red.

The fans near the dugout cheered wildly.

The foul landed near the bleachers.

We were sitting near the first baseline.

The team with the most committed players won.

The defense played with sheer determination.

The coach was furious with the players.

His batting average is over .300.

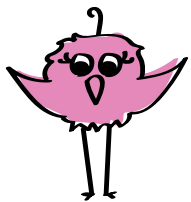

The pitch over the corner was called a strike.

The scoreboard over the bleachers was broken.

All of the players were on the bench.

The players on the bus were exhausted.

The pitcher was on the mound.

Conjunctions:

ANSWER KEY

words that connect parts of a sentence

Directions: underline the conjunction in each sentence and circle what part of the sentence it connects (S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

1. The batter swung and missed.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

2. The pitcher threw two balls and a strike.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

3. The coach was a leader but also a mentor.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

4. Fans were nervous yet excited.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

5. The ball bounced over the wall and into the stands.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

6. The pitch hit the plate and bounced.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

7. Popcorn and peanuts were eaten.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

8. The runner looked at the pitcher and the batter.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

9. Jose had three doubles and a home run.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

10. The confident and powerful slugger stepped up.

(S, DO, PN, OBJ PP, V, ADJ, PA, PP)

Interjections

ANSWER KEY

Directions: write the interjections that could work in the sentence.

Yay Yahoo Darn Wow
Shoot Ugh Phew

1. We won. Yay! / Yahoo!
2. My team lost. Darn! / Ugh!
3. That was a close call. Phew!
4. Our pitcher looks injured. Ugh! / Shoot!
5. The umpire blew that call. Ugh! / Darn!
6. What a great catch. Wow!
7. Our manager got ejected. Shoot! / Darn!
8. These seats are awesome. Wow! / Yahoo!
9. That was a difficult loss. Darn! / Ugh!

Answers will vary. Possible answers shown.

Verbals

Directions: identify and underline the verbal in each sentence, then circle what type of verbal it is. Circle gerunds in blue, participles in green, and for infinitives circle in red, green, or blue (depending on context).

1. The screaming coach got ejected.
(gerund participle infinitive)

2. The outfielder made a diving catch.
(gerund participle infinitive)

3. The runner wanted to steal.
(gerund participle infinitive)

4. The goal was to win.
(gerund participle infinitive)

5. Practicing is essential.
gerund participle infinitive)

6. The catcher tagged the sliding runner.
(gerund participle infinitive)

7. Players practice bunting.
gerund participle infinitive)

8. To cheer was fun.
(gerund participle infinitive)

9. Bunting is tricky.
gerund participle infinitive)

